The position:

This is a full-time, open-ended position to commence 1 August 2024. Applications are welcome until 15 June 2024. Following the initial evaluation of applications, promising candidates will be invited to an interview during the month of June. The final decision is to be announced by the end of June 2024. In addition to the general list of tasks and requirements summarised here, the position involves the following area-specific duties appropriate to the promotion and performance requirements as defined for assistance professors by ELTE’s Employment Regulations.

- Teaching: participating in the teaching activities performed by GTK faculty on all educational levels, in the field of finance and accounting. Teaching activities involve reviewing existing teaching and assessment activities, planning, and delivering lectures and seminars, undertaking the academic supervision of students completing their thesis, providing assistance with devising, organising, and marking assessments, participating in talent management, contributing to curriculum development, and educational organisation as defined in ELTE GTK's currently effective Instructors' Manual. All activities are to be performed in English.
- Research: engaging in research activities in the above-mentioned field, conducting original international publication and academic review activities, initiating, and actively engaging in research carried out at the department.
- Other: undertaking administrative responsibilities and contributing to the departmental/faculty tasks that fall to these units from the faculty/university responsibilities and duties

The above list of duties is not exhaustive and may be subject to change. The post holder may be required to undertake other duties within the scope and grading of the position.

The salary is commensurate with position and experience and is based on continuous performance measurement (e.g. teaching quotas and thesis supervision). The expected payment range for assistant professors will be determined by the individual's performance (approximately EUR 2,000-3,500 per month). Additional benefits include social care, healthcare, travel cost reductions, sports facilities, social activities, etc.

Candidate Qualifications specific to the position

Strong candidates for the position will demonstrate the general skills, experience, and qualifications outlined in the document "Information for Applicants for Assistant Professor Positions at ELTE GTK". The current position requires minimum five years of previous experience and these special area-specific qualifications:

- university degree and PhD, preferably in economics / management / organisation sciences / finance, accounting, taxation, or other relevant fields
- familiarity with specific area-related software/programmes

Preference will be given to candidates who have specialised qualifications or hold a diploma / certificate in international Finance and Accounting.
