Dean of Deakin Business School

Deakin Business School is searching for a Dean to lead the School going forward. DBS is committed to preparing our 14000 students for careers of the future. We harness emerging technologies to facilitate innovative, borderless, and personalised education and our world-class research informs our practice and impacts the communities with whom we engage.

Deakin Business School comprises six academic departments that span the full range of business disciplines: Accounting, Economics, Finance, Information Systems & Business Analytics, Management, and Marketing. DBS is both EQUIS and AACSB accredited. We aim to provide an innovative and dynamic learning community that offers leading-edge degrees and strives to "make a difference" by creating new knowledge, preparing students for global citizenship, and contributing to the progress of Australia and the Asia-Pacific region.

With 62 000 students Deakin is one of Australia's largest universities and is ranked in the top 2 per cent in all of the major international rankings. Deakin's vision and mission is articulated in its strategic plan LIVE the future: 2017-2020. Through LIVE the future, Deakin aspires to be Australia's premier university in driving the digital frontier, enabling globally connected education for the jobs of the future, and research that makes a difference to the communities Deakin serves.

As a priority, the School is seeking candidates who are highly credible scholars with a track record of high-quality teaching and research leadership. The successful candidate will be externally engaged with industry and understand the ever-growing need for universities to work in partnership with industry for the benefit of students and research. Experience developing innovative and creative curriculum to enable students to be creative thinkers and globally engaged is essential. Ideally, the successful candidate will have direct accreditation experience with EQUIS and/or AACSB. Applicants should have a demonstrated leadership track record and proven experience of leading and inspiring colleagues.
