Associate / Full Professor in Strategy, Marketing, Decision Making, Big Data / AI, Operations and Supply Chain Management

Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO

Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO invites applications for Associate/Full Professor positions in Strategy, Marketing, Decision Making, Big Data/AI, Operations and Supply Chain Management. We are looking for candidates with significant teaching experience in MBA and/or executive education, proven track record of high impact/high quality research and the ability to teach at the MBA and executive levels.

About the school: Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO is a 14 year old private institution founded by the leading Russian entrepreneurs and companies. The school is EQUIS accredited and offers MBA, Executive MBA, as well as open and customized executive education programs on its state-of-the-art campus in Moscow. A dual-degree Executive MBA for Eurasia was launched in 2018 in partnership with Hong Kong Institute of Science and Technology (HKUST). The school is a member of the GNAM and GBSN associations. For more information about the school, visit www.skolkovo.ru.

Responsibilities: The newly hired faculty members will be expected to teach in the school's flagship degree and executive programs, develop new educational content, and engage in research activities aimed at producing relevant thought leadership for the global academic and practitioner audiences. The desire and ability to collaborate with other faculty, research, and program staff is crucial. The new hires at the level of full professor will also become involved in the development of junior faculty.

All positions are based in Moscow with three-year contracts available on competitive basis. The school provides a comprehensive expatriate package, including housing and schooling allowances. Preferred starting date is January/September 2021.

Qualifications: a doctoral degree in business, economics or other related discipline; established track record of international publications; successful teaching experience in MBA and/or executive education programs; proficiency in written and spoken English. Successful candidates will also demonstrate an ability to bridge the gap between academia and practice.

Application Instructions:

Round 1 applications must include (1) cover letter explaining the candidate's motivation to join SKOLKOVO, research interests and plans, and teaching philosophy, (2) full CV with the names and contact details of three references. Short-listed candidates will be invited to submit additional application materials for Round 2.
