As part of its ambitious Strategic Plan, ESC Clermont Business School recruits new Faculty members.

ESC Clermont Business School offers great career opportunities for academics.

The School

Member of the Conférence des Grandes Ecoles, ESC Clermont Business School is a renowned AACSB, EPAS and AMBA accredited French Grande Ecole of Management.

The School relies on a permanent faculty of fifty professors and a large network of expert lecturers. Its educational objective is to accompany its students (Bachelor, Grande Ecole, Master and MSC. programs) towards a professional integration and evolution at the highest levels, through strong partnerships with companies and the offering of a wide range of dual skills or double degrees both in France and abroad. ESC Clermont Business School delivers also continuing education and offshore programs.

ESC Clermont Business School founded in 2008 with the Université Clermont Auvergne the Clermont

Recherche en Management laboratory (CleRMa, EA3849). Our common research unit in management pursues ambitious objectives of intellectual contributions in line with its educational project and in collaboration with major economic actors.

The environment

ESC Clermont Business School is ideally located in the centre of Clermont-Ferrand, a city renowned for its quality of life and its cultural & sport activities, which offers a work environment conducive to personal and professional development.

The School continues to develop its permanent faculty and recruits several professors with proven teaching experience and significant publication capacities in the following fields of skills and expertise:

- Business Intelligence/Business Analytics
- Marketing/ Digital Communication
- Design
- Finance/Accounting/ Controlling
- Management/Human Resources/CSR
- Strategy/Entrepreneurship

Profiles sought / Skills required

We are looking for professors willing to invest in an institution with a human dimension that has a strong identity based on the quality of teaching, the proximity between professors and students, and strong interactions with the local ecosystem and with international academic partners.

The positions are full-time (5 days/week) and based in Clermont-Ferrand.

Salary is to be defined according to profile and experience.

The candidate should hold a PhD, publish in academic peer-reviewed journals and have an excellent teaching ability. Prior knowledge of French is not required but applicants should be completely fluent in English as most courses will be taught in this language.

Good networks in academia and professional circles at both regional and international levels will be appreciated. Experience in executive education and/or consulting will be a plus, as well as successful managerial responsibilities (project, department, program, research).

Application procedure

Complete applications – cover letter, detailed curriculum vitae, evidence of research (three academic articles) as well as the names and addresses of two referees – must be sent to direction.academique@esc-clermont.fr by February 15, 2021.

Candidates are strongly encouraged to apply as soon as possible as review of applications will begin in March 2021.
