«A place where knowledge is created» – As a leading business university we set global standards for research and teaching by promoting integrative thought, responsible action and an entrepreneurial spirit of innovation in business and society.

Assistant Professor (Tenure Track) in Asset Pricing (100%)

The University of St.Gallen and its School of Finance are seeking candidates for an assistant professorship in the field of Asset Pricing. The University of St.Gallen is a member of the Swiss Finance Institute (SFI). We offer an attractive compensation and a low teaching load.

To be considered for this position, applicants should have a Ph.D. in finance (or be near completion) and an excellent track record in research. The appointment is for 6 years, with an intermediate evaluation after 3 years and tenure evaluation after 6 years.

The University of St.Gallen is strongly committed to promoting equal opportunities and diversity. We specifically encourage women and applicants with backgrounds underrepresented among our current faculty to apply. The University provides support in the areas of dual career, relocation and childcare.

We seek candidates per 1 August 2023, or by mutual agreement. For further information, please contact Professor Paul Soederlind, Chairman of the Appointment Committee (facultyposition@unisg.ch).

The application should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, list of publications, and two reference letters. Candidates should submit their application to the President of the University of St.Gallen, Professor Dr. Bernhard Ehrenzeller, online via <http://www.unisg.ch/professorships> at the latest by 31 August 2022.
