- Applications Close 31st August 2022 date at 11.00pm AEST (R-07510)

About This Opportunity

The Strategy & Entrepreneurship discipline at The University of Queensland Business School is recruiting multiple positions (teaching & research) in Entrepreneurship. at either Lecturer (Level B), Senior Lecturer (Level C) or Associate Professor (Level D) (Assistant or Associate Professor equivalent levels).

We invite applications from established and early career colleagues. Colleagues in the discipline investigate contemporary topics in entrepreneurship, such as lean startup, social entrepreneurship, digital entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial strategy, business model innovation, and corporate entrepreneurship.

The successful candidate will: undertake research of high quality where they will: have a growing international research profile and seek competitive research grants; contribute to undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and supervision and further development of the Business School's programs; and perform administrative and other activities associated with the School.

About the Discipline

Research and teaching in the entrepreneurship group is driven by academics investigating contemporary topics, including lean startup, social entrepreneurship, digital entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial strategy, business model innovation, and corporate entrepreneurship. The group's research strength is reflected in the top-tier journals published by staff in the last five-years, which include publications in the Journal of Business Venturing, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Administrative Science Quarterly, Strategic Management Journal, Organization Science, Regional Studies, among other outlets.

Our entrepreneurship research is supported by recent grant success from the premier national grant body, the Australian Research Council (ARC), including multiple discovery projects and an ARC Industrial Transformation Training Centre for Innovation in Biomedical Imaging Technology. Recognition for research excellence extends to editorial board memberships at leading journals such as Journal of Business Venturing, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, Academy of Management Review, Innovation: Organization & Management, Long Range Planning, Organizational Research Methods, Organization Studies.

The Discipline offers entrepreneurship teaching in the form of Entrepreneurship and Innovation Majors in the Bachelor of Business, Bachelor of Advanced Business and Master of Business as well as a specialised Master of Entrepreneurship and Innovation. Entrepreneurship and innovation also feature in our prestigious MBA, which is consistently ranked in the Top 50 MBA programs globally by The Economist. The discipline also shapes the program of the University's entrepreneurship accelerator (UQ Ventures).

Hosting the Australian Centre for Entrepreneurship Research Exchange (ACERE) conference in 2023 is testament of the University of Queensland and Business School's investment in entrepreneurship.
