KIMEP University

GE/College of Social Sciences (CSS)

Full-time Faculty (Open Rank) in the History of Kazakhstan

Department: General Education

Academic Unit: College of Social Sciences

Reports to: Chair of Department / Dean

Effective from August 2023

The period is for academic year 2023-2024.

Position Summary

The General Education Program under the College of Social Sciences at KIMEP University is looking for applicants to the full-time faculty in Kazakhstan history. The successful candidate will teach multiple sections of Modern History of Kazakhstan. Because the course is required of all students, we are seeking enthusiastic team leaders to collaborate with part-time faculty from other departments as well as within CSS.

The position may also involve teaching in other areas of the College, depending on background and interest. CSS includes the departments of Media and Communications, Public Administration, International Relations and Regional Studies, and Economics.

Minimum Qualifications

Applicants should have an earned doctorate in History, Anthropology, Cultural Studies or relevant areas from accredited institutions. Applicants should have at least 3-5 years of teaching experiences in reputable universities and extensive professional experiences in the field of major areas. Applicants should be able to teach in English, as well as Russian and/or Kazakh language ABDs will be considered who meet the position qualifications and include in their application materials a letter from the dissertation chair confirming defense date prior to the position start date. Candidates must have a record of scholarship, which includes published research in refereed journals and/or books.

A valid certificate of English language proficiency should be provided by final candidates who are non-native speakers of English (The International English Language Testing System or IELTS academic with overall score 8.0 or equivalent).

Preferred Qualifications

Experience with online and hybrid course design and teaching is strongly desired, along with a demonstrated commitment to innovative, student-centered pedagogy. International experience and interest in CIS countries is welcome. Ability and willingness to teach related courses in our College of Education and Humanities will also be an asset.

Almaty, Kazakhstan

The city of Almaty is situated at the base of the majestic Tien Shan Mountains in Southeast Kazakhstan. About 2 million people live in or near Almaty and it is the financial, cultural, summer and winter sports and cosmopolitan capital of Kazakhstan. Kazakhstan is located in the heart of Eurasia with important commercial inroads bridging Asia and Europe. Boasting the Silk Road of the 21st century, Kazakhstan offers unique positions in oil and gas, economic development, and trade. With a transitioning economy that has witnessed four-fold growth over the past decade, Kazakhstan's dynamically changing economic, social, educational and cultural environment provides incredible opportunities for significant and original research.

Compensation

Rank and salary are competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications. Compensation after tax compares favorably with net salaries in western countries.

Limited on campus housing is available to rent, or alternatively, help is available in finding off campus housing. In addition to salary, a benefit package includes basic healthcare insurance, reduced tuition rates for KIMEP courses, and subsidy for relocation allowance. New faculty members are provided with a reduced teaching schedule during the first semester. Summer paid teaching is typically available.

The salary will be subject to deduction of taxes (10% Personal Income tax in general) as required by the Law of Kazakhstan. During the first 183 days of staying in Kazakhstan a employee-foreigner has 20% income tax; after 183 days he/she has 10% personnel income tax.
